Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we announce our annual conference MUSKCON 2018, scheduled to be held on the 30th, 31st March and 1st April 2018.

This three day event will feature three live workshops on The Anterior Abdominal Wall, Obstetrics and The Pelvic Floor. We are bringing you a delectable array of lecture topics which are relevant to our day to day practice. These topics will be dealt with by the best teachers in our country. Our overseas faculty is Prof. Jan Deprest whose major areas of interest are Pelvic Floor Imaging & Fetal Therapy. He will conduct a major part of the pelvic floor workshop and will also address us on Fetal Therapy.

Please come, participate and deliberate at MUSKCON 2018!
